SYLLABUS

The programme of exchange and welcome of students, researchers and professors from Pharo University will take place over two half days. On the morning of Monday 7 April, the Faculty of Architecture will host a lectio magistralis by the head of the Department of Architecture and Design (DiAP), Prof. Alessandra Capuano, on the relationship between the city of Rome, the legacy of its past and the perspectives for a sustainable future. Following this, representatives of the various research laboratories belonging to the Department, as ArCo and Babele, will present the main ongoing and recently concluded research projects. ArchiDiAP, a web portal for collaborative sharing of materials on architecture, and the research and works in the Flaminian District that will be the subject of the following day's visit, will be presented. Finally, the group will be accompanied to visit an architecture exhibition set up in the Faculty's exhibition space. On the morning of Tuesday 8 April, the guests of Pharo University will be accompanied by representatives of the Department of Architecture and Design Francesca Castelli, Luca Porqueddu and Fabio Balducci in the Flaminio district. A tour to the free spaces of the Maxxi (plaza and atrium), with hints of the Flaminio Project and the Museum of Science; a walk along Viale de Coubertin, skirting the Palazzetto and the Flaminio Stadium; and finally a visit to the Auditorium entering the cavea and Archaeological Museum and ending with the upper terraces.
